Welcome To
The Youngest Country In The World
New Zealand

Our company

PRESTIGE PACIFIC'S 18 years of successful New Zealand-wide tour experience is at your service. We are proud to have established our reputation as quality tour operators with a proven track record in delivering memorable New Zealand experiences. For over a decade Pacific Prestige have crafted and customised quality, best value for money tours of New Zealand for independent and group travellers.

Our team

We are an experienced team of young-at-heart New Zealand travel professionals who you can depend on for expert advice and dedicated service. Because customer care comes first we listen to what our customers tell us, and we set quality standards. Over the years we have built strong relationships with local suppliers of quality tourism products; these vital links to known and trusted suppliers ensure reliable and consistently high standards.

Our goal

The team at PRESTIGE PACIFIC is committed to ensuring that our guests to New Zealand have a safe, enjoyable and memorable stay. We go all-out to deliver a memorable New Zealand holiday experience.

Our strength lies with the support of our overseas agents and our loyalty will always be to them. We value our high rate of repeat customers and we work hard to keep them coming back. We commit to providing you with a professional and efficient service and conducting our business activities with honesty and integrity.

Customer care

We love our work and believe that each and every guest being looked after by PRESTIGE PACIFIC must enjoy a pleasant and stress-free stay. To that end every aspect of our training and service is designed to add to our guests' experience. With PRESTIGE PACIFIC, guests don't have to worry about language barriers. Our New Zealand based team members are fluent speakers of many European and Asian languages and are always happy to assist guests in their own language.

We welcome our guests personally and on arrival our guests are met in Auckland and Christchurch with a welcome pack - complete with travel documents, itinerary, vouchers, maps and brochures - ensuring every detail is at hand for a relaxing and stress free stay.

Guests also have the added security and benefit of knowing that in an emergency one of our team is available on call, seven days a week and 24 hours a day. We take responsibility for any unforeseen problems, should they arise.

Our customers

Our travellers come to us from all over the world: Europe, China, India, and South East Asia, to name a few places. Annually we look after over 3000 guests who enjoy holidays tailored to their unique needs from our full range of inbound services.

We believe the best way to welcome our guests is by offering our customers exactly what they want - good service and rates, quality standards, safety and security, personal attention and warm New Zealand hospitality.
